

THE OUTCRY ENSEMBLE

2015 Season | St John's Church, Notting Hill

Friends & Patrons receive free entry & reserved seating at all 8 Notting Hill concerts

Thursday 22 January, 7.30pm

St. John's Church

Haydn String Quartet

Mozart String Quartet

Saturday 28 February, 7.30pm

Hosted by St. Peter's Church,

Kensington Park Road W11 2PN

New Commission

Adams Son of Chamber Symphony

Thursday 26 March, 7.30pm

Venue to be confirmed

Schubert String Quartet No. 14: Death

and the Maiden

New commission

Brahms Clarinet Quintet

Friday 19 June, 7.30pm

St. John's Church

Haydn Cello Concerto in D major

Haydn Symphony No. 99

New commission

Mozart Symphony No. 40

Thursday 17 September, 7.30pm

St. John's Church

Kodaly Duo for Violin & Cello

Stephenson Duo for Violin & Piano

Shostakovich Piano Trio No. 1

Thursday 15 October, 7.30pm

St. John's Church

Tchaikovsky Serenade for Strings

Joel Rust Beyond the Heart

Sibelius Symphony No. 1

Thursday 12 November, 7.30pm

St. John's Church

Dvorak String Quartet

New commission

Brahms Piano Quartet in G minor

Thursday 3 December, 7.30pm

St. John's Church

Kate Whitley Split for Clarinet and

Percussion

Copland Clarinet Concerto

Brahms Symphony No. 1

Saturday 14 March, 7.30pm: A Special Collaboration with Ashtead Choral Society

Vaughan Williams Five Mystical Songs | Dvorak Stabat Mater

Bruch Violin Concerto with our regular leader Oscar Perks as soloist

Leatherhead Theatre. All Tickets £15. Book at www.ashteadchoralsociety.org.uk

The Outcry Ensemble is the resident orchestra at St John's Church, Notting Hill, Lansdowne Crescent, London W11 2NN

For further information and ticket enquiries, visit www.theoutcryensemble.com

A dynamic young chamber music group, performing established works from the classical repertoire alongside commissions from some of the UK's brightest new composers. Concert programmes are subject to change.